President's Message

Dear Member,

A union collective agreement is like a Charter of Rights. It explains, protects and guarantees your rights on the job. It stipulates the wages you must be paid, the benefits you must receive. It puts down on paper your right to dignity and respect at work.

It is important that you know your rights, the wages and benefits you are entitled to receive. Please take the time to read through this agreement. If you have any questions about it, talk to a shop steward in your workplace or phone your full-time union representative. They are also the people to talk to if you feel the rights and benefits outlined in this document are not being provided to you.

Sincerely,

Jeff Traeger,
President UFCW Local 832

AGREEMENT BETWEEN:

FAROEX LTD. a body corporate carrying on business in the Province of Manitoba, hereinafter referred to as the “Employer”

and:

UNITED FOOD AND COMMERCIAL WORKERS UNION, Local No. 832, chartered by the United Food & Commercial Workers International Union, hereinafter referred to as the “Union”

WHEREAS: The Employer and the Union desire to cooperate in establishing and maintaining conditions which shall promote the efficient and productive operation of the Employer, improve quality, eliminate waste and unnecessary expense and avoidable delays in production, maintaining harmonious relations between the Employer and the employees covered by this Collective Agreement, to provide methods for a fair and amicable adjustment of disputes which may arise between them and to promote an efficient operation,

NOW, THEREFORE, the Union and the Employer mutually agree as follows:

ARTICLE 1 NATURE OF THE BARGAINING UNIT

1.01 The Employer recognizes the Union as the sole and exclusive bargaining agent for all employees of Faroex Ltd., in the Province of Manitoba, save and except sales personnel, maintenance personnel, office staff, Managers, those above the rank of Manager, and those excluded by the Act.

1.02 The Union and the employees recognize and agree that in order to provide maximum opportunities for continued employment and in order to continue to provide good wages and working conditions, the Employer must always be in a strong competitive market position. This means that the Employer must always provide the highest quality products and services at the lowest possible cost. Therefore, the Union and the employees also acknowledge that at all times, subject to the express terms of this Collective Agreement, the Employer must be able to improve the quality of workmanship, products and services, eliminate waste of materials, supplies, equipment and facilities and do such other things as may be reasonably required to promote efficient and productive operations.

Persons excluded from the bargaining unit shall not perform duties that are normally performed by members of the bargaining unit except where the work is:

- (a) for the purpose of instruction;
- (b) for the purpose of coping with an emergency;
- (c) when regular employees are not readily available;
- (d) making adjustments and/or repair to equipment or machinery;
- (e) research work or work of an experimental nature involving the development of new processes and new products; and
- (f) temporarily assisting the remaining employees in meeting production quotas.

While bargaining unit employees are actively on layoff, the Employer agrees to meet with the Union to review what work is being done by persons excluded from the bargaining unit to ensure that such work being performed is not contributing to the ongoing layoff of employees.

1.03 The Union and its representatives/members will not use Faroex's fax machine, photocopiers, electronic media or telephones (not including the telephone in the lunchroom) to improperly communicate information to a party outside of Faroex without Faroex's express written consent on a per incident basis.

Where the Union reports on an issue relating to Faroex on their website, it is agreed that such article shall remain for a period of up to six (6) months at which time it will then be removed.

No bargaining unit member shall remove and/or photocopy any document that has been placed by the Employer on the Employer's Bulletin Board.

5.04 The Union agrees to indemnify and save harmless the Employer against any and all claims, demands, actions, proceedings and any other form of liability arising out of or in respect of deductions made by the Employer from the wages of any employee pursuant to the provisions of this Article 5, except where the Employer has failed to make deductions in accordance with the foregoing.

Prior to returning to an eight (8) hour day, the employer shall post the shifts, identifying the number, classification and type of employee required on each shift. The shifts shall be awarded in accordance with Article 22.04. If there is not a sufficient number of employees to fill out the shifts, the Employer shall assign the shifts in reverse order of seniority, in accordance with Article 22.04.

Nothing in this Agreement shall prevent the Employer from scheduling new employees on the day shift for a period not exceeding sixty (60) calendar days. The Employer reserves the right to schedule employees outside of their seniority standing onto the day shift where necessary in the case of training/instruction, to accommodate an employee's temporary request due to unusual circumstances, or to alleviate an immediate and identifiable problem situation. In all other cases at least forty-eight (48) hours' notice of change must be given, or four (4) hours' additional pay at the employee's appropriate hourly rate of pay must be paid in lieu of such notice.

7.06 Time Clock

9.03 Overtime shall be by mutual agreement between the employees and the Employer, with the most senior employee on the shift who has the skill and ability to do the normal functions of the job being requested first and thereafter in decreasing order of seniority if he or she wishes to work the overtime. If there are insufficient volunteers available to do the required work, the Employer will assign the overtime on a reverse seniority basis commencing with the most junior employee who has the skill and ability to perform the normal functions of the job being requested.

9.04 For the purposes of computing overtime, any employee who is off on union leave, bereavement leave or any other paid leave shall have this time off credited and considered to be time worked for the purposes of determining when overtime is to be calculated.

9.05 Equivalent paid compensatory time off shall, at the option of the employee, be given in lieu of overtime pay up to a maximum of forty (40) hours of overtime (60 hours off with pay in lieu of overtime) to be taken at a time mutually agreed upon between the employee and the Employer. Requests for banked time off will not be unreasonably denied and can be taken in increments of up to forty (40) hours or one (1) week off. 25.08 The Employer shall provide each employee in the bargaining unit with either a full-size locker or a half-size locker (two (2), if available) so as to enable said employees to reasonably, securely store their own personal property while at work. The Employer will provide reasonable access to an exiting shower for the use of female employees who shall have sole access while showering. Request for access shall not be unreasonably denied. The Employer will work towards either having full-sized lockers in the women's locker room or having sufficient one-half lockers for two (2) per person.

25.09 The Employer shall provide a lunchroom equipped with a coffee machine, microwave oven, kettle, fridge, and sink for employees to use during their meal and/or rest periods.

ARTICLE 26 WAGE REFERRAL / NEW CLASSIFICATIONS / PAY DAYS

26.01 The minimum hourly rates of pay for all employees covered by this Collective Agreement shall be as contained in Appendix "B" of this Collective Agreement and shall form part of this Collective Agreement. Where an individual employee's hourly rate of pay is higher, such hourly rate of pay shall not be reduced by reason of this Collective Agreement. The hourly rates of pay provided for in Appendix "B" apply to job classifications and not to individuals.

26.02 Rates of pay for any new classification that may be established by the Employer and which come within the scope of this Collective Agreement shall be the subject of negotiations, and the Employer shall have the right to temporarily establish an hourly rate to be paid until the regular hourly rate of pay for this new classification has been agreed upon. If the Employer and the Union cannot reach an Agreement, then at the request of either party, the matter shall be submitted to the arbitration procedure contained in this Collective Agreement. The Employer and the Union mutually agree that an Arbitrator appointed in accordance with the terms of this Collective Agreement shall have the right to determine the hourly rate of pay to be paid for this new classification and the Employer and the Union further agree that the Arbitrator's decision shall be final and binding upon all parties concerned.

26.03 The Employer may place such rehired employee or a newly hired employee at a rate of pay other than the Start Rate for the applicable position if, in the Employer's view, the employee's previous comparable experience at Faroex and/or at another workplace justifies placement at a higher rate.

26.04 Employees shall be paid by direct deposit by no later than every second Friday at 12:00 noon. Each employee shall receive an itemized electronic statement of wages covering the two (2) weeks ending the previous Sunday. Employees will have access to a computer and printer during break times or before or after their scheduled shifts to view and print a paper copy of their statement if the employee requires a paper copy.

ARTICLE 27 COURT'S DECISION

27.01 In the event that any articles or portions of this Collective Agreement are determined to be improper or invalid by a Court of Law or Labour Board, such decision shall not invalidate any other portions of this Collective Agreement than those directly specified by such decision to be invalid, improper or otherwise unenforceable.

ARTICLE 28 DISCIPLINE / DISCHARGE

28.01 An on-duty Shop Steward of the disciplined employee's choice, or in the absence of a Shop Steward, another employee from the bargaining unit of the reprimanded employee's choice providing that this employee is on the Employer's premises at that time, shall be present when a member of the bargaining unit is being given a reprimand or is being suspended or discharged. A full-time Union Representative shall be entitled to attend any such meeting provided he or she is readily available to do so, within two (2) hours of any such action.

28.02 All disciplinary meetings shall be held in private.

28.03 The affected employee, the Shop Steward and the Union, shall be given a copy of any disciplinary notice which is to be entered on an employee's personnel file. Separate disciplinary notices will be given for each separate offence. The affected employee, the Shop Steward and the Union, shall also be given a copy of any discharge notice that is given to an employee. In all cases of discipline or discharge the Employer shall notify the affected employee, the Shop Steward and the Union in writing of the reasons for taking such action. Any such notice of discipline and/or discharge shall be given to the affected employee and the Shop Steward immediately, and a copy of said discipline and/or discharge notice shall be faxed to the Union office within twenty-four (24) hours of the event.

28.04 The Employer shall remove all written disciplinary notices from the employee's personnel file after eighteen (18) calendar months providing there have been no incidents of a similar type nature within that eighteen (18) month period, in which case such notice(s) shall remain on file until such time as there have been no incidents of such similar type for a full eighteen (18) calendar months. The Employer shall not be able to use any disciplinary notice which has been removed in accordance with this clause against the employee at a later date. This time frame of eighteen (18) calendar months shall not include periods of layoff.

28.05 Once a year, or more often if necessitated by the filing of a grievance, employees covered by this Collective Agreement, upon written request, shall have an opportunity to review their own personnel file within two (2) working days of the request in the presence of an Employer representative.

ARTICLE 29 ADJUSTMENT OF GRIEVANCES

29.01 A grievance shall mean a complaint concerning the interpretation, application, or alleged violation of the provisions of this Collective Agreement, or in the case of a non-probationary employee, a complaint that s/he has been discharged without just cause.

29.02 Where the Union requires information regarding a grievance dealing with hours of work and/or seniority, the Employer shall supply such information in writing to the Union within ten (10) calendar days from the date of the request. The parties agree that the purpose of the grievance procedure is to provide a method for the resolution of grievances between the parties. Where practicable, the parties will share information - relevant to a grievance - in the interest of resolving disputes.

 It is understood and agreed by the Union and the Employer that the time limits specified in the various steps of the above grievance procedure may only be extended by mutual agreement between the Union and the Employer.

29.03 Any employee, the Union or the Employer may present a grievance. Any grievance which is not presented within fifteen (15) working days of the event giving rise to such grievance shall be forfeited and waived by the aggrieved party. For the purpose of this article, it is agreed that working days shall be interpreted to mean Monday through Friday, which are regular office days, less any days the office may be closed.

29.04 All grievances must be submitted in writing.

29.05 The procedure for adjustment of grievances shall be as follows:

Step 1

 By a discussion between the employee and the Shop Steward and/or Union Representative with the employee's immediate supervisor or his or her designated appointee. The immediate supervisor or his or her designated appointee shall reply to the grievance in writing, to the Union, within five (5) calendar days. If a satisfactory settlement has not been reached, the Union Representative and/or employee may proceed to Step 2.

Step 2

 The Union Representative or Representatives may take the matter up with the Employer official designated by the Employer to handle Labour Relations matters. If the matter is not taken up within ten (10) calendar days of the date the Union received the written reply to the grievance in Step 1, it shall be deemed to have been abandoned and further recourse to the Grievance Procedure shall be forfeited.

29.06 If a satisfactory settlement cannot be reached, then upon request of either party within fourteen (14) calendar days of receiving the final written decision from either party but not thereafter, the matter may then be referred to an Arbitrator selected in accordance with Article 30 - Arbitration.

29.07 Only grievances which have been processed in accordance with the procedure(s) outlined herein may be referred to arbitration.

ARTICLE 30 ARBITRATION

30.01 If the Union and the Employer cannot reach an adjustment, upon request of either party, the grievance shall be submitted to an arbitrator. The arbitrator herein set forth on a rotating basis:

Gavin Wood
Michael Werier
Colin Robinson
Diane Jones
Karine Pelletier

If any individual of the above noted panel, who has been requested in his/her turn to act as an arbitrator, shall be unable or unwilling to act s/he shall not again be requested to act as the arbitrator until his/her name comes up again on the regular rotation of the panel.

The arbitrator shall not be deemed to be willing to act unless s/he is in the position to convene the hearing within twenty-eight (28) days from the date of his/her selection. In the event none of the above arbitrators is willing to convene a hearing within twenty-eight (28) days, the matter will be referred to the Manitoba Labour Board who shall appoint an arbitrator.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be given within a period of twenty-one (21) days after the closing of the arbitration hearing.

30.02 The person selected as arbitrator shall in no way be involved directly in the controversy under consideration, or be a person who has a personal or financial interest in either party to the dispute.

30.03 The arbitrator shall receive and consider such material evidence and contentions as the parties may offer and shall make such independent investigation as s/he deems essential to a full understanding and determination of the issues involved. The arbitrator shall insofar as is reasonably possible, detail the evidence and reasoning upon which the decision is based. In reaching his/her decision, the arbitrator shall be governed by the provisions of this Collective Agreement.

30.04 The arbitrator shall not be vested with the power to change, modify or alter any of the terms of this Collective Agreement. All grievances submitted shall present an arbitrable issue under this Collective Agreement, and shall not depend on or involve an issue or contention by either party which is contrary to any provisions of this Collective Agreement, or which involves the determining of a subject matter not covered by or arising during the term of this Collective Agreement.

30.05 In the event of termination, discharge or suspension of an employee, the arbitrator shall have the right to sustain the Employer's action or to reinstate the employee with full, part or no back pay, with or without loss of seniority, or to settle the matter in any way s/he deems equitable.

30.06 The findings and decisions of the arbitrator shall be binding and enforceable on all parties involved.

30.07 It is the intention of the parties that this article shall provide a peaceful method of adjusting all grievances, so that there shall be no suspension or interruption of normal operations as a result of any grievances. The parties shall act in good faith in proceeding to adjust grievances in accordance with the provisions of this Collective Agreement.

30.08 The expenses and fees of the arbitrator shall be borne equally by the parties to the arbitration proceedings.

30.09 The Employer and the Union agree that at any time prior to the hearing date for an arbitration they may voluntarily agree to use a mutually acceptable mediator in their attempts to resolve the grievance. It is expressly understood and agreed between the parties that any such mediator has no authority or powers under the terms of the Collective Agreement to impose or require the parties to accept his or her suggested settlement to the matter in dispute. All expenses and fees that may be incurred by such mediator shall be borne equally by the Employer and the Union. Unless otherwise mutually agreed to between the Employer and the Union, this procedure may only be used in situations where grievance mediation services are not available through provincial legislation.

The Employer shall replace these items on an ongoing basis as the need arises. The Employer agrees to consider any request for additional safety equipment made by the Safety and Health Committee and such request(s) shall not be unreasonably denied.

35.02 Upon the employee providing the Employer with an original receipt for the purchase of safety boots (multiple pairs during the year if applicable) or protective clothing/equipment as listed above, the Employer shall reimburse the employee for the cost of such items, up to a maximum of two hundred and twenty-five ($225.00) dollars per calendar year.

For employees working in outdoor material handling, the annual protective/clothing equipment allowance shall be two hundred and fifty ($250.00) dollars per calendar year.

An employee must complete twelve (12) consecutive months of employment to be eligible for the reimbursements above.

If an employee is off work for a full calendar year, the employee will not be eligible to receive the reimbursements above for the calendar year.
