President's Message

Dear Member,

A union collective agreement is like a Charter of Rights. It explains, protects and guarantees your rights on the job. It stipulates the wages you must be paid, the benefits you must receive. It puts down on paper your right to dignity and respect at work.

It is important that you know your rights, the wages and benefits you are entitled to receive. Please take the time to read through this agreement. If you have any questions about it, talk to a shop steward in your workplace or phone your full-time union representative. They are also the people to talk to if you feel the rights and benefits outlined in this document are not being provided to you.

Sincerely,

Jeff Traeger,
President UFCW Local 832

- (b) demonstrating or training employees;
- (c) when an employee is late for work.

Each time a non-bargaining unit employee performs bargaining unit work they shall notify the Steward or Alternate Steward for that department and demonstrate that they have attempted to resolve the problem prior to their performance of that work.

ARTICLE 3 DEFINITIONS

3.01 The term "employees" as used in this Agreement shall refer only to those employees covered by the terms of this Agreement.

3.02 A "full-time employee" is one who has completed the probationary period defined in Article 10 and has their name placed on the seniority list.

3.03 A "part-time employee" is one who, on a regular and recurring basis, is normally scheduled to work twenty-four (24) hours or less per week after completion of the probationary period defined in Article 10 and has their name placed on the part-time seniority list.

3.05 (a) A "temporary" employee is an employee who is hired to meet seasonal or peak demand periods being April 1 to September 30 and November 15 to December 31st, for not more than six (6) months. A temporary employee shall have no rights under the seniority provisions of this Agreement. However, if a temporary employee remains in the Company's employ beyond six (6) months, or if they are offered permanent full-time employment prior to that date, they shall thereupon cease to be a temporary employee and then serve a probationary period of seven hundred and twenty (720) hours worked, as described under Article 10.01.

(b) The employment of an employee hired as a temporary employee shall automatically terminate at the expiry of the available work for which the employee was hired. An employee hired as a temporary employee shall be advised at the time of their hiring of their temporary status and the estimated duration of their employment. The union office shall be notified in writing of all temporary hirings including the name of the person hired, date of hire and the expected expiry date of the available work.

It is understood that the hiring of a temporary employee under the conditions set forth in this Article does not create a new position or vacancy if such employment is for less than six (6) months. Therefore, temporary employees will not be used to fill a position or vacancy for which the Company needs a full-time employee on a permanent basis. Such a full-time position will be posted in accordance with the job posting provisions of this Agreement. The Company or the temporary employee may terminate without notice.

- (c) Temporary employees shall not have access to the grievance and/or arbitration procedure in the event of dismissal or layoff.
- (d) If a temporary Driver/Merchandiser Assistant is used in a non-replacement capacity outside the time periods identified in this Article they will be paid at the Driver/Merchandiser Assistant rate.
- (e) A "term employee" is an employee who is hired to replace a permanent employee who is on vacation, on approved leave of absence with or without pay, short term or long term disability, Workers Compensation or Parental Leave and whose service will be of a limited duration and in any event no longer than one (1) year. An employee hired into a term position shall automatically be terminated at the expiry of the stipulated term or upon return to work of the absent regular employee, whichever is the lesser. If the employee filling the term position is an existing employee of the Company they shall be returned to their former position at that time. The length of a term position may be extended beyond one year upon mutual agreement between the Company and the Union.
- (f) Full-time employees will be offered and given preference when filling term positions that arise in higher paying classifications than the normal classifications occupied by regular full-time employees provided that:
 - (g) the full-time employee(s) possess the qualifications and ability to perform the term job(s) in a satisfactory manner, and it is understood, that the full-time employee will be returned to their former position once the need for the term position ends.

3.05 In this Agreement the use of the masculine pronoun shall be construed as if the feminine pronoun had been used where the context so requires.

3.06 In this Agreement when the plural is used it shall also mean the singular, wherever applicable.

ARTICLE 4 MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

4.01 The Union recognizes and acknowledges that the management of the operations and the direction of the work force are fixed exclusively in the Company and without limiting the generality of the foregoing the Union acknowledges that it is the exclusive function of the Company to:

The arbitrator shall not have the power to change this agreement or to alter, modify or amend any of its provisions. However, the arbitrator shall have the power to dispose of a grievance in a manner which they seem just and equitable.
- (i) All decisions of the arbitrator are to be limited in application to that particular dispute and are without prejudice. These decisions shall have no precedential value and shall not be referred to by either party in any subsequent proceedings.

RE: TRADES TRAINING AND APPRENTICESHIP

1. The Company agrees to participate in an Apprenticeship Program and to register apprentices under the Provincial Apprenticeship and Trades Qualification Act. The Company shall have the sole right to determine the number of apprenticeships available, and the type of apprenticeships it will support. The selection of an apprentice will be made on the following basis:

- a) Opportunities for apprenticeship shall be posted and filled based on an interview and testing scores (test to be administered after interview). Applicants will be made aware ahead of time on what they will be tested on.
- b) Employees must apply in writing to participate in the Apprenticeship program. Acceptance of apprentices will be based on them meeting qualifications and standards consistent with the qualifications outlined in each trade regulation. Qualifications and standards will be applied equitably and consistently to all applicants. Should two employees score equally and have comparable qualifications, then seniority will apply.
- c) Applicants meeting the qualifications and standards from among the Maintenance Team will be the first selected by seniority, subject to

d) below. Applicants from among the broader qualifying employees will then be accepted for available apprenticeships by a) (above).

- d) Of the applicants mentioned above, those who possess previous trade apprenticeship training or equivalent training /experience will be given preference in the selection of apprentices.
- e) An employee's seniority shall continue to accrue during the apprenticeship process.
- f) Before entering a formal apprenticeship, a current non-maintenance employee must serve a seven-hundred and twenty (720) hour suitability period for the purpose of establishing same. If an employee is successful, the Company will credit this time towards the apprenticeship. If either the Company or the employee determine during the suitability period that the employee will not be successful, the employee will be returned to their previous position. Apprentices hired from outside the company will serve the normal new-hire probationary period as outlined in Article 10 and will not serve a suitability period.
- g) The apprenticeship program will be considered, provided the Company has a current Red Seal ticketed tradesperson employed.

The apprenticeship program will have an independent wage class (Class 11 – Trades Apprentice). The progression differs to progression listed in Appendix C as regardless of existing seniority with the Union, an employee starting in an Apprenticeship shall start at "level 1" and work their way up as they progress through the levels of his/her apprenticeship (an apprentice may be moved to another level of this wage progression if mutually agreed upon by the Union and the Company).

- Level 1 (85%)
- Level 2 (90%)
- Level 3 (95%)
- Level 4 (100%)

2. Employees who take the Manitoba Trades Training Program or other accredited program, as scheduled and approved by the Company and that are required to attend school, during their normal working hours, shall receive the difference between their regular hourly rate, for all hours lost, and the subsidies provided through the apprenticeship program and Employment Insurance. It shall be the responsibility of the employee to apply for all such subsidies.

3. An apprentice may be subject to release from the apprenticeship program as follows:

- a) The apprentice twice fails a training course at any one level.
- b) The employee voluntarily withdraws from any in-school training portion of the program without a reason which is acceptable to the Company.
- c) Poor attendance and/or disciplinary action

Should the apprentice be released they will be placed in a Maintenance or Production classification, if available.

4. The Company and the Union agree that the continued support of the apprenticeship program represents a significant commitment and investment by both the Company and the Employees. For the purposes of protecting the value of this investment, the parties agree to the following:

Employees who are entering the Manitoba Trades Training Program will be required to sign an agreement (Educational Assistance Agreement form) which obliges them to repay full costs/benefits provided by the Company if they have not achieved Journeyman/Red Seal Certification within a five (5) year timeframe from commencement of the program or if they voluntarily terminate their employment prior to completing the program.

That Apprenticeship employees of the Company, for whom the Company made this investment, who choose to leave the employ of the Company after successful completion of the program voluntarily, or are exited from the program but not from The Company (per LOU11.03) The Company will be reimbursed by the employee to the following schedule (percentage of full costs/benefits provided to the employee per this LOU):

Termination within 0-12 months after completion of the program	100%
Termination within 12-24 months after completion of the program	75%
Termination within 24-36 months after completion of the program	50%
Termination within 36-48 months after completion of the program	25%
Termination within 48+months after completion of the program	0%

If the employee's employment is terminated by the Company for cause and he/she is not reinstated through the grievance and arbitration procedures outlined in Article 8 of this Agreement and who have yet to complete five (5) years of service post-certification, shall be responsible for full reimbursement of the costs/benefits provided by the Company associated with their training as outlined in this LOU.

5. If an employee is displaced from a trades position but bumps into another non-trade classification in the Company for which the employee is qualified, there shall be no requirement for reimbursement of any costs. In such case, said employee shall then be paid at the appropriate posted rate for that classification. In addition, there is no reimbursement requirement in the event of a permanent lay-off.
