President's Message

Dear Member,

A union collective agreement is like a Charter of Rights. It explains, protects and guarantees your rights on the job. It stipulates the wages you must be paid, the benefits you must receive. It puts down on paper your right to dignity and respect at work.

It is important that you know your rights, the wages and benefits you are entitled to receive. Please take the time to read through this agreement. If you have any questions about it, talk to a shop steward in your workplace or phone your full-time union representative. They are also the people to talk to if you feel the rights and benefits outlined in this document are not being provided to you.

Sincerely,

Jeff Traeger,
President UFCW Local 832

BETWEEN:

THE FAIRMONT WINNIPEG, as Agent for the Employer,
WINNIPEG HARGRAVE HOTEL
GP INC., hereinafter referred to as the "Employer"

AND

UNITED FOOD AND COMMERCIAL WORKERS
UNION, LOCAL NO. 832, chartered by the United Food &
Commercial Workers
International Union, hereinafter referred to as the "Union"

Whereas the Employer and the Union desire to cooperate in establishing and maintaining conditions which are set forth in this agreement with a view to promoting a harmonious relationship between the employer and the employees covered by this agreement, to provide methods for a fair and amicable adjustment of disputes which may arise between them and to promote an efficient operation;

NOW THEREFORE THE UNION AND THE EMPLOYER MUTUALLY AGREE AS FOLLOWS:

ARTICLE 1 NATURE OF THE BARGAINING UNIT

1.01 The Employer recognizes the Union as the sole and exclusive bargaining agency for all of its employees working at The Fairmont Winnipeg, in the City of Winnipeg, in the Province of Manitoba, save and except the Administrative/Clerical persons employed in the Sales/Marketing and Catering departments, those persons employed in the Engineering/Maintenance, Accounting and Human Resources departments, Security staff, Supervisors, Managers, those above the rank of Supervisor and/or Manager and those excluded by the Act.

1.02 The Employer agrees not to increase the number of Assistant Banquet Managers excluded from the bargaining unit beyond six (6) except for legitimate business reasons. When doing so, the Employer shall inform the Union.

1.03 The Employer shall provide the Union with a list containing the current names, social insurance numbers, classifications and rates of pay of all bargaining unit employees, whenever a written request to do so is received from the Union. The Union agrees that it will not make such request more often than once in a calendar year.

1.04 The parties recognize that employees of the Employer in supervisory positions, or above the rank of Supervisor, may (when the situation so requires) help employees covered by this collective agreement in order to maintain the quality of service to customers, and in this case may also perform work currently done by current employees of the bargaining unit. Such work must not, however, cause the elimination of any position now covered in the collective agreement.

When an employee calls in sick or does not report for work, and should the work required to be performed be for a period of four (4) hours or more, the Employer agrees to contact a qualified employee from the Department that has not worked forty (40) regular hours in the week to replace said employee. It is agreed that the contacted employee must report to work as required by the Employer, furthermore, the provision of sub-article 6.04 (a) will not apply.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, an employee of the Employer working in a position not covered by the collective agreement, may continue work presently being performed but shall not assume additional duties if this would cause the elimination of a position now covered in the collective agreement.

ARTICLE 2 DEFINITIONS

2.01 "Full-time employee" means an employee working in a position covered in the bargaining unit as indicated in Article 1.01, and who has been classified as a full time employee and who is normally available to work up to and including forty (40) regular hours per week, except due to illness, injury, or authorized leave of absence. Except as otherwise provided in this clause, a full time employee who becomes unavailable to work up to and including forty (40) hours per week shall revert to part time as of the date he/she becomes unavailable to work such hours.

2.02 (a) "Part-time employee" means an employee working in a position covered in the bargaining unit as indicated in Article 1.01, who has been classified as a part time employee and who is normally scheduled to work less than forty (40) hours per week. For the purpose of greater clarity, an employee shall only move from part time to full time status where he/she has been the successful applicant for a full-time position, or

(b) A part-time employee occupying a position covered by the bargaining unit may, not more than twice in any calendar year, request in writing to have his/her employee status verified. After verification, should said employee have averaged thirty-six (36) regular hours of work or paid per week over a twenty-six (26) consecutive week period within the same classification within the same department, excluding relief for leave of absence, vacation and sickness, he / she shall then be classified as a full-time employee and will then be eligible for all full-time benefits.

2.03 "Casual employee" means an employee who may be called in on an irregular basis to work in the hotel. Casual employees shall not be covered by the terms of the collective bargaining agreement. The Employer shall not schedule casual employees where part time or full time employees in the affected classifications are available to work such hours. No casual employee will have more hours in one week than the most junior unrestricted part time employee, unless the unrestricted part time employee has made a request for additional time off during that week.

2.04 Unless otherwise specifically stated, any provision in this Agreement which is expressed in terms of the masculine shall, in its application to a female employee, be read with the necessary changes to express the feminine, and vice versa.

2.05 Unless otherwise specifically stated, any provision in this Agreement which is expressed in terms of the plural shall, in its application to the singular, be read with the necessary changes to express the singular, and vice versa.

2.06 A layoff of an employee shall be deemed to occur when an employee is removed from the work schedule for one (1) week or more due to lack of work.

2.07 A Union Representative shall be a person who is employed by the Union.

ARTICLE 3 UNION SHOP

3.01 All employees covered by this Agreement who are members of the Union, shall remain members of the Union in good standing during the duration of this Agreement. All newly hired or rehired employees who are not members of the Union shall make application for membership within ten (10) calendar days from their date of hire or rehire and become members within thirty (30) calendar days and remain members in good standing during the duration of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 4 DEDUCTION OF UNION DUES

4.01 The Employer shall deduct from the wages of each employee, such Union dues as are authorized by the Union. The Employer shall also deduct from newly hired or rehired employees such initiation fees and assessments as are specifically authorized by affected employees. Monies deducted during any four-calendar-week period shall be forwarded by the Employer to the Secretary-Treasurer of the Union within twenty (20) calendar days following the end of the Employer's four-calendar week period and shall be accompanied by an electronic statement of the names and social insurance numbers of the employees for whom deductions were made and the amount of each deduction. The Employer shall also provide the Union, when remitting the foregoing payment, with the name change of employees who have changed their name on the Employer's record.

4.02 The Union shall provide the Employer with a minimum of three (3) weeks' prior written notice of any change in the amount of Union dues that are to be deducted from employees.

4.03 The Union shall indemnify and save the Employer harmless from any and all claims for amounts of monies deducted from the employees' pay and remitted to the Union under the terms of this article.

4.04 Each year the Employer shall calculate the amount of Union dues deducted from the employee's pay and shall indicate same on the T-4 slip of each employee by no later than February 28th.

4.05 The Employer shall provide each new employee and rehired employee, at the time of the employment, with a form letter supplied by the Union, outlining to the employee his or her responsibility in regard to the payment of the Union dues and initiation fees.

4.06 The Employer shall forward Exhibit One, sample attached to this Agreement, duly completed by the employee, to the Union within ten (10) calendar days from the date of hire or rehire of the employee. The Union shall bear the expense of printing and mailing the letter.

4.07 The Employer agrees to provide the Union, once a month, with a list containing the names and social insurance numbers of all employees in Excel format who have terminated their employment during the previous month, and those hired or rehired during this same period.

ARTICLE 5 PROBATIONARY PERIOD

5.01 Any employee who is hired by the Employer shall be on probation until they have worked within the bargaining unit a total of sixty (60) full or partial days actually worked since their date of last hire. The Employer, at its discretion, may discharge any probationary employee within the above time limit and said employee shall have no recourse to the Grievance and Arbitration articles of this Agreement.

Any days worked as a casual employee will count towards the probationary period if that employee moves into a full-time classification.

ARTICLE 6 HOURS OF WORK

6.01 Work Week/Full-Time Employees

The basic work week for full-time employees shall be up to forty (40) hours per week, and up to eight (8) hours per day exclusive of the meal period.

This provision is not to be interpreted as a weekly or daily guarantee of hours and/or of days of work. Full time employees will have the opportunity to work forty (40) hours per week before a part time employee is scheduled or called in.

6.02 Consecutive Hours of Work

Non-consecutive hours may only be assigned in the Banquet Department and the Velvet Glove Restaurant. The Employer also agrees that if split shifts are to be worked, it is to be done in reverse order of seniority. Notwithstanding the foregoing, non-consecutive hours may be assigned in other departments if there is mutual agreement between the employee concerned and the Employer, or if such assignment is required in order to maximize hours of work for any particular employee or group of employees. Furthermore it is agreed that, unless otherwise agreed to between the employee and his/her Department Head, the first part of a split shift shall not be for less than three (3) hours.

Such scheduling shall be done on a rotational basis within the classifications within each department, starting with the most senior full time employee in each such classification.

Once the Employer has met the requirement stated in the above paragraph, subject to the operational needs of the Employer and as long as they are able to maintain a qualified work force, any extra available weekends the following shall apply:

Any extra available weekends off shall, following the scheduling of unrestricted part-time employees and first within their own department where feasible and practicable, the Employer shall endeavour to assign said extra weekends off within the classification within each department, by seniority, on a rotational basis among full-time employees who have completed a minimum of ten (10) years of service within said classification.

For clarity purposes, weekend rotation on the schedule will be defined as follows:

- If the 1st day of a month falls on a Sunday, that weekend will be considered to be the last weekend in month "A".

- Employees may opt out of the weekend rotation every three (3) months of each calendar year by advising the Employer of same in writing.

It is agreed that once an employee has advised his/her Department Head of his/her preference to work six days per week to maximize hours of work, said preference cannot be changed for a minimum of three (3) calendar months. It is understood that on exercising this preference employees will also be opting out of the weekend rotation

In the application of the above stated paragraph, the Employer agrees to endeavour to give employees required to work overtime a minimum of two (2) hours notice, except in the Food and Beverage Departments, said notice shall be given providing the Employer knew at least one hours in advance. For the purpose of greater clarity "Food and Beverage Departments" shall mean Banquets, Culinary, the Lounge at The Fairmont, Stewarding and the Velvet Glove Restaurant.

8.03 No employee shall perform any overtime work until such time as it has been authorized by management.

9.01 The following days shall be recognized and considered as paid General Holidays:

New Year's Day	Labour Day
Louis Riel Day	Thanksgiving Day
Good Friday	Remembrance Day
Victoria Day	Christmas Day
Canada Day	Boxing Day
Civic Holiday

and any other day or portion of a day designated as a paid holiday by the Provincial Government.

9.02 An employee who works on a General Holiday as designated in Article 9.01 will be paid for all hours worked at one and half times their regular rate of pay for Christmas Day and Good Friday and will, if he/she so qualifies pursuant to Article 9.03, be provided with another day off with pay equal as indicated under Article 9.05, by the employee on the General Holiday. Such day off shall be given to the employee within thirty (30) days of the General Holiday unless the Employer and the employee agree on a later date.

Provided that the Employer is able to maintain an adequate and qualified work force, any work or time off on a general holiday shall be offered or granted in order of seniority within a classification, within a department, and then in descending order of seniority.

In the event that such a day off is not allowed within the specified period or the employee has chosen not to activate the provisions of Article 9.07, said employees shall be paid as per the provision of Article 9.05, in lieu thereof, with the period coinciding with the expiration of the period stated herein.

9.03 Notwithstanding Article 9.01, an employee is not eligible or entitled to pay for a general holiday in which he/she does not work where:

- (a) He/she has absented himself/herself from work without the employer's consent either on the regular working day immediately preceding or following the General Holiday, except that an employee shall not be deprived of his/her pay for a general Holiday if by reason of established illness the employee is absent from work on either or both of the days immediately preceding or following the General Holiday; or

- (b) He/she did not report to work after having been scheduled or having accepted a call to work on the day of the General Holiday; except where the employee is dismissed or laid off by his/her Employer, or is ill or injured.
- (c) An employee is not entitled to pay for a General Holiday where he/she is receiving Workers Compensation or disability benefits for the day in question.

9.04 If a General Holiday for which an employee is eligible occurs during an employee's vacation, the employee at his or her discretion, shall take either an extra day's vacation with pay or an extra day's pay. Said employee must make his/her request in advance at the same time as he/she is requesting his/her vacation.

9.05 All employees who are eligible or entitled to pay for a General Holiday shall receive General Holiday pay. General Holiday pay is five percent of an employee's total wages in the four-week period immediately before the holiday. Overtime should not be included in this calculation.

9.06 In order to accommodate a justifiable high holy day in accordance with personal religious beliefs, and without causing undue interference to the operation, a non-Christian employee who qualifies as per the provisions of Article 9.03 may request the following:

- (a) apply to receive a regular paid day off in lieu of the provisions of Article 9.03; or;
- (b) take a paid day off in lieu as per Articles 9.04, 9.05, or 9.07.

Such request must be made in writing to the department head at least three (3) weeks prior to the date honouring the General Holiday listed in Article 9.01.

It is understood and agreed that the above shall not be construed as adding further entitlements to those outlined in Article 9.01.

9.07 Between January 1 and December 31 in a given calendar year an employee will be allowed to bank a maximum of five (5) General Holidays earned as per Article 9.02. Banked General Holidays shall be administered in the following manner:

- (a) An employee who wants to avail him/herself of the herein stated General Holiday Bank, shall immediately upon becoming entitled to a lieu day advise his/her Department Head in writing of his/her desire to do so.

- (b) Banked General Holidays that exceed the maximum of the Bank shall be assigned by the Employer within thirty (30) days of exceeding the maximum in the Bank, or paid in accordance with the provision stated in Article 9.02.
- (c) An employee may choose to use a bank lieu day to compliment a regular work week up to forty (40) regular hours or to compensate for loss of wages caused by sickness. The accumulated General Holiday Bank may be taken in increments of one half (½) day or one (1) full day.
- (d) All Banked General Holidays remaining in the Bank at the end of pay period number twenty five (25) will be paid in pay period twenty six (26) unless otherwise requested in writing by an employee. All payouts shall be made no later than the first pay period of April in the following year.
- (e) Scheduled vacation will take precedent over Banked General Holidays.
- (f) In accordance with the application of Article 19.01 - Personal Leave, "Banked General Holidays" will be taken.
- (g) At any time during the current year and following the written request of an employee, the Employer will pay out any "Banked General Holidays".

9.08 Following a mutual agreement between the employee and his/her Department Head, a lieu day may be granted and paid for under the provisions of this Article, thirty (30) calendar days immediately preceding a General Holiday.

It is agreed that, should an employee, after the fact, not be eligible on said General Holiday, the employee will be responsible for reimbursing the Employer on his/her pay cheque following the actual date of said General Holiday.

ARTICLE 10 MINIMUM SHIFT

- 10.01 (a) Regular working hours will be scheduled by classification within a department based on seniority and qualifications. The Employer agrees to first give preference to full time employees by scheduling them up to eight (8) hours in a day and up to forty (40) hours in a week, in order of seniority. The Employer will then schedule part time employees for the remaining hours available, in order of seniority. The Employer shall give preference to senior part time employees who do not restrict their availability. The words "in order of seniority" indicated above shall mean seniority in the classification within the department.

(b) Declaration of Availability

1. All part-time employees shall fill out a declaration of availability indicating their availability as follows:

A permanent vacancy shall be defined as an existing position within a classification becoming empty due to the permanent departure of its incumbent and for which the Employer is intending to maintain actively, or a new position that is created.

21.02 Such vacancies shall be posted for a period of five (5) working days and employees bidding on job vacancies must make written application to the Human Resources Department no later than the fifth day of the posting. Such application shall set out the employee's qualifications for the vacancy.

Should the position not be awarded within fourteen (14) calendar days from the closing of the job posting, the Employer shall, for advisory purposes only, inform the Union in writing as to whether or not they intend to fill the position, and also the reason that has motivated the Employer's decision.

Copies of job postings including list of internal applicants and names of persons awarded the position shall be faxed or emailed to the Union office within two (2) business days (excluding Saturday and Sunday and General Holidays) of the vacancy being awarded.

21.03 Temporary vacancies which are expected to last less than sixty (60) days will be filled by qualified employees in order of seniority in the department where the vacancy occurred, and if there is no qualified employee or no qualified employee wishes to fill said temporary position, it may be filled at the discretion of the Employer. Temporary vacancies expected to last longer than sixty (60) days, will be posted as per Article 21.02. The posting will clearly indicate that it is a temporary vacancy. It is understood that upon the expiration of a temporary vacancy or position, an employee so assigned shall be returned to their regularly assigned position. An employee hired specifically for a temporary vacancy or position shall be terminated at the expiry of said vacancy or position unless they have obtained another position covered by this Collective Agreement.

21.04 The Employer shall consider applicants for whom a successful bid would result in a promotion or transfer to any classification listed under Appendix "B". In cases of promotion or transfer, the following factors shall be considered:

- a) skill, ability, job efficiency, qualifications and experience;
- b) seniority with the Employer.

When the matters in factor (a) are relatively equal in the opinion of the Employer, then factor (b) shall govern.

Trial Period

Qualified employees transferred or promoted to a new position shall receive a full explanation of the duties involved and shall have a period of up to thirty (30) working days to demonstrate their qualifications. During the above mentioned period the employee may, after having advised the Director of Human Resources, return to their original position, or if he/she has not successfully demonstrated his/her qualifications may be returned to his/her original position by the Employer, without loss of seniority.

The Employer shall, for advisory purposes only, indicate to an employee the qualifications required for said employee to move from his/her level to the next level in the Culinary Department. It is agreed and understood that said required qualifications are deemed not permanent and as such may be subject to changes to meet the service demands.

21.05 The Employer agrees to consider applications for permanent vacancies in the bargaining unit from existing employees prior to hiring from outside the Hotel.

21.06 If the vacancy is not filled on the foregoing basis, the Employer may fill the job in question in its discretion.

21.07 The Employer shall not consider any applicant to a posting who has, within the prior five (5) month period successfully bid on a vacancy.

21.08 Where the Employer determines that the successful applicant is unable to perform the work of the new position to the satisfaction of the Employer, the employee shall be returned to his/her former position without loss of seniority, and any employee affected by his/her return shall likewise be returned to their former positions.

21.09 During the course of this Agreement, if the Employer institutes a new job classification covered by the scope of this agreement, a rate will be set and the Union will be notified. If the Union disagrees with the rate, the Union will so advise the Employer within thirty (30) days of notification, after which a meeting will be arranged to negotiate the rate. If no agreement can be reached, the Union may refer the issue to arbitration within thirty (30) days of the meeting.

Training for Promotion

Employees shall be encouraged to learn the duties of positions other than their own within the hotel. For this purpose, opportunity shall be afforded during their regular working hours, provided that such arrangement does not interfere with the performance of their regularly assigned duties.

The Employer may also, for this purpose, make arrangements with employees, subject to their consent, to exchange positions for temporary periods without effect upon the rates of pay of the employees thus permitted to train on other positions. Should more than one employee, having the basic qualifications, request such training for the same position at the same time, then seniority shall be the deciding factor.

Training During Normal Working Hours

An employee required by the Employer to take training during his/her normal working hours will be paid his/her regular rate of pay while in training.

Training Outside Normal Working Hours

An employee required by the Employer to take training outside his/her normal working hours will be compensated at his/her regular rate while in training.

Voluntary Training

Where training facilities are provided by the Employer on a voluntary basis, an employee taking advantage of such training will not be compensated.

The Safety Committee may be expanded by the addition of a non-management employee from Engineering/Maintenance, and should that occur, the number of representative of the Employer will be increased to five (5). It is agreed that a primary function of this Committee is to review the previous minutes, discuss accidents and incidents, potential hazards, initiatives to increase awareness and overall health & safety of all members and required action where necessary. Additionally, all members of the Health & Safety Committee will participate in completing regularly scheduled site inspections. Minutes of these meetings shall be kept and posted on all departmental bulletin boards. 22.02 First aid supplies will be maintained at various locations on the Employer's premises.

22.03 Each Union member of the Health and Safety Committee will receive sixteen (16) hours paid education leave per year with the nature of the course(s) to be determined by mutual agreement between the Union and the Employer.

22.04 In situations where an employee has reasonable grounds to believe and does believe that the particular work is dangerous to his/her safety or health, the employee shall first report his or her concerns to his/her immediate supervisor and a member of the Health and Safety Committee. If immediate action to correct the situation is not taken or if the employee is told that corrective action is not necessary but nevertheless continues to believe that the particular work is dangerous to his/her safety or health, the employee shall be entitled to refuse to perform that particular work until such time that a person from the appropriate government agency has come to the Employer's operation to inspect the particular work firsthand. During this time period the employee may be assigned to alternative duties that may be available within the Hotel. Payment for the above noted time period will not be made if the employee refuses to perform alternative duties.

22.05 Shoe Allowance

The Employer will provide reimbursement of up to a maximum of eighty five ($85.00) dollars per year, for purchasing or repairing, safety shoes for full-time employees who have completed their probationary period and are required by the Employer to wear safety shoes. ARTICLE 23 WAGES

23.01 The minimum hourly rates of pay for all employees covered by this Agreement shall be as contained in Appendix "B" of this Agreement and shall form part of this Agreement. Where an individual employee's hourly rate of pay is higher, such hourly rate of pay shall not be reduced by reason of this Agreement. The hourly rates of pay provided for in Appendix "B" apply to job classifications and not to individuals.

23.02 Employees shall be paid prior to noon of every second Friday by direct deposit. Each deposit shall be accompanied by an itemized statement of wages covering the two (2) week period ending the previous Saturday and said itemized statement shall be delivered to the employees on the pay day.

23.03 Should the Employer re-hire a qualified employee, in the same classification that he/she had previously occupied, within six (6) consecutive months following his/her resignation with the hotel, the starting rate for said newly re-hired employee shall be set at ninety-five (95%) percent of the full rate of the classification for which he/she is re-hired.

ARTICLE 24 COURT'S DECISION

24.01 It is understood that any changes in municipal, provincial or federal law applicable to the Employer, and which may void any individual portions of this Agreement will be complied with, yet will not be construed to void the remainder of this Agreement.

- a) is given a reprimand which is to be entered on the employee's personnel file;
- b) is suspended or discharged.

 In unusual circumstances, where it is necessary for the Employer to advise an employee by mail of discharge, the Union office will be mailed a copy of such notice. Absence of a Shop Steward or Assistant Shop Steward or another employee shall not invalidate the discipline, except in exceptional circumstances.

25.02 The affected employee, a Shop Steward and the Union, shall be given a copy of any disciplinary notice which is to be entered on an employee's personnel file. The affected employee, the Shop Steward, and the Union shall also be given a copy of any discharge notice that is given to an employee. In all cases of discipline or discharge the Employer shall notify the affected employee, and a Shop Steward and the Union in writing of the reasons for taking such action. The notice of discipline or discharge shall be given to the affected employee and a Shop Steward promptly and a copy of the discipline or discharge notice shall be forwarded to the Union office via fax within two (2) business days (excluding Saturday and Sunday and General Holidays) of the event.

Employees may have a Shop Steward present during such discussions or have a Shop Steward conduct the discussions on their behalf.

26.02 Any complaint, disagreement or difference of opinion between the Employer and the Union, or the employees covered by this Agreement, which concerns the interpretation, application, operation or alleged violation of the terms and provisions of this Agreement, shall be considered as a grievance.

26.03 Any employee, the Union or the Employer may present a grievance. Any grievance which is not presented within fifteen (15) calendar days following the event giving rise to such grievance shall be forfeited and waived by the aggrieved party.

26.04 All grievances, including processing through each step of the grievance procedure, must be submitted in writing and must specify the clause(s) or articles of this Agreement that are alleged to have been violated and the redress being sought.

26.05 The procedure for adjustment of grievances shall be as follows:

STEP 1: By a discussion between the employee and the Shop Steward and/or Union Representative with the employee's Department Head or his or her designated appointee. If the matter is not taken up within ten (10) calendar days of the date the Union received the written reply to the Grievance in Step 2, it shall be deemed to have been abandoned and further recourse to the grievance procedure shall be forfeited. The Vice-President of Human Resources or his/her designated appointee shall reply to the grievance in writing to the Union within twenty-one (21) calendar days.

A grievance dealing with a written corrective action will commence at Step #2 of above noted grievance procedure.

26.06 If a satisfactory settlement cannot be reached, then upon request of either party within fourteen (14) calendar days from the date of receiving the final written decision at Step 3 but not thereafter, the matter may then be referred to an Arbitrator selected in accordance with Article 27.

26.07 It is understood and agreed by the Union and the Employer that the time limits specified in the various steps of the above grievance procedure may only be extended by written agreement between the Union and the Employer. It is agreed between the Union and the Employer that failure by the Employer to reply in writing within the above time limits stipulated in Steps 1, 2 and 3 shall be considered as a negative reply from the Employer and the Union or Union representative shall be entitled to proceed to the next step of the grievance procedure.

26.08 A Union policy grievance shall be filed at Step 2 of the grievance procedure. A Company policy grievance shall be filed with the Union Representative of the Union.

27.02 The person selected as arbitrator shall in no way be involved directly in the controversy under consideration or be a person who has a personal or financial interest in either party to the dispute.

27.03 Whenever one of the parties refers a matter to arbitration, the matter shall be heard within thirty (30) calendar days for suspension or termination and ninety (90) calendar days for any other matters. The matter shall be heard within that time limit unless both parties mutually agree to a date beyond the thirty (30) calendar day or ninety (90) calendar day requirement, or in the event that none of the arbitrators referred to above are available to meet within the thirty (30) calendar day requirement or 90 calendar day requirement, whichever is applicable. If the parties cannot mutually agree to a date beyond the thirty (30) calendar day requirement, or ninety (90) calendar day requirement, whichever is applicable, the matter shall be referred to the selected Arbitrator who shall have the right to decide on the matter. In no event can a hearing be extended to a period longer than another thirty (30) calendar days. The Arbitrator shall have thirty (30) calendar days to render a decision in regard to any matters dealing with suspension or termination, and ninety (90) calendar days from the last date of the hearing on any arbitration cases referred to him or her other than suspensions or terminations.

27.04 The arbitrator shall receive and consider such material evidence and contentions as the parties may offer. In reaching a decision, the arbitrator shall be governed by the provisions of this Agreement and shall render a decision as soon as reasonably possible.

27.05 The arbitrator shall not be vested with the power to change, modify or alter any of the terms of this Agreement. All grievances submitted shall present an arbitrable issue under this Agreement and shall not depend on or involve an issue or contention by either party that is contrary to any provisions of this Agreement, or which involves the determining of a subject matter not covered by or arising during the term of this Agreement.

27.06 In the event of termination, discharge or suspension of an employee, the arbitrator shall have the right to sustain the Employer's action or to reinstate the employee with full, part or no back pay, with or without loss of seniority, or to settle the matter in any way he or she deems equitable.

27.07 The findings and decisions of the arbitrator on all arbitrable questions shall be binding and enforceable on all parties involved.

27.08 It is the intention of the parties that this article shall provide a peaceful method of adjusting all grievances so that there shall be no suspension or interruption of normal operations as a result of any grievances. The parties shall act in good faith in proceeding to adjust grievances in accordance with the provisions of this article.

27.09 The expenses and fees of the arbitrator shall be borne equally by the parties to the arbitration proceedings.

30.02 No employee may be required to make up shortages when management exercises the right to open an employee's cash drawer or area where stock is kept during the employee's work shift, unless the drawer or stock area is opened in the presence of the employee and the employee is given the opportunity to verify all withdrawals and/or deposits and stock taken out. Where the employee so requests, a record shall be made of any withdrawals and/or deposits and stock taken out.

30.03 Employees shall not be penalized for payment on legitimate walk outs.

30.04 Notwithstanding the foregoing, an employee shall be discharged, and such discharge shall be considered to be for just cause, where the employee has stolen any property or money belonging to the Employer, fellow employees, or customers of the Employer. However, an employee shall have the right to file a grievance and proceed to arbitration for the sole purpose of establishing whether or not the employee has stolen property or money as indicated above. If the arbitrator finds that the employee has stolen property or money as indicated above, the grievance shall be dismissed. If the arbitrator finds that the Employer has failed to establish the foregoing to the satisfaction of the arbitrator, then the employee shall be reinstated to his/her employment and shall be reimbursed for all lost wages, benefits and seniority.

30.05 Except in the case of normal wear and tear, the Employer shall, in order to replace lost or wilfully damaged name tags, laundry bags or identification cards, charge and deduct from the employee's payroll the following amount:
