President's Message

Dear Member,

A union collective agreement is like a Charter of Rights. It explains, protects and guarantees your rights on the job. It stipulates the wages you must be paid, the benefits you must receive. It puts down on paper your right to dignity and respect at work.

It is important that you know your rights, the wages and benefits you are entitled to receive. Please take the time to read through this agreement. If you have any questions about it, talk to a shop steward in your workplace or phone your full-time union representative. They are also the people to talk to if you feel the rights and benefits outlined in this document are not being provided to you.

Sincerely,

Jeff Traeger,
President UFCW Local 832

10.01 A new employee must serve a probationary period of four hundred and eighty (480) actual hours worked from their date of hire. After two hundred and forty (240) actual hours worked from date of hire, management will meet with the probationary employee to review job performance to date. A new employee shall upon completion of their probationary period have their seniority back dated to their latest date of hire.

 The Employer reserves the right to extend a new employee's probationary period. Such an extension and the reasons why, shall be made known to the affected employee prior to the expiry of the original probationary period. The Employer shall advise the Union of any employee's probationary period being extended.

10.02 Probationary employees may be dismissed and shall not have recourse to any grievance or arbitration procedures in this Agreement. Any termination of a probationary employee shall be deemed to have been for just cause.

ARTICLE 11 SENIORITY

11.01 Seniority shall be defined as the length of continuous service in the bargaining unit since the employee's latest date of hire and providing the employee has completed their probationary period. If employees begin work or are hired on the same date, seniority ranking shall be determined from their date of application to the Employer. If the date of application is the same, the ranking shall be established using their birth date, defined for these purposes as the month and day.

11.02 Outside Bargaining Unit Seniority Retention

 Employees from within the bargaining unit who accept a position with the Employer which places them outside of the bargaining unit shall continue to accumulate seniority for a period of six (6) calendar months. Said employees shall be entitled to return to the bargaining unit and their former job at any time during the six (6) month period if they so choose. Employees who remain outside of the bargaining unit beyond the six (6) month time limit shall keep the seniority they had immediately prior to leaving the bargaining unit in the event they eventually return to the bargaining unit but shall not in such cases accumulate any seniority for the time period that they were outside of the bargaining unit beyond the six (6) month limitation. Employees accepting a term or temporary position outside the bargaining unit will continue to accumulate seniority for the time period that they were outside of the bargaining unit beyond the six (6) month limitation.

11.03 Casual employees who do not work ninety-six (96) hours in a fiscal year ending March 31st will be dropped to the bottom of the casual employee seniority list with employees working the least hours in the year having the least seniority.

A casual employee shall be terminated if they decline three (3) offers of shifts within a six (6) month period unless they are working in another location of the Employer, are ill or have a justifiable reason acceptable to the Employer.

Each casual employee shall be required to submit an availability schedule to the Employer which includes any medical restrictions and amend it anytime such availability changes. This schedule shall be accessible to the pager person.

11.04 In January and July of every calendar year, the Employer shall post the full seniority list showing the seniority of each employee. The Union shall be emailed a separate seniority list in Excel format that contains the following information: start date, seniority date, classification, department (if applicable), rate of pay, FT/PT status, employee number, mailing address, email address, telephone number and S.I.N. of all bargaining unit employees including those on leave (including the type of leave).

11.05 Seniority (not benefits) shall continue to accrue during any period of paid leave of absence or authorized unpaid leave.

11.06 An employee shall lose their seniority and their employment shall cease for any one or more of the following reasons:

- (a) the employee resigns or is discharged by the Employer and is not reinstated through the grievance and/or arbitration articles of this Agreement;
- (b) if the employee is laid off for a period in excess of twelve (12) months; or
- (c) the employee fails to return to work on recall within fourteen (14) calendar days of a registered letter being sent to his/her latest recorded address on file with the Employer or within three (3) days of direct contact with a management representative of the Employer unless the employee is not able to report for work due to an illness or injury substantiated by a medical certificate; or
- (d) the employee is absent from work without an explanation acceptable to the Employer for a period of two (2) or more consecutive scheduled working days; or
- (e) the employee fails to return to work on the day specified in accordance with an approved leave of absence including vacation or suspension unless the employee is not able to report for work due to an illness or injury substantiated by a medical certificate.

11.07 Seniority Layoff - Recall

Employees will be laid off or reduced to part-time when necessary in reverse order of seniority providing the senior employee possesses the required qualifications and demonstrated ability to perform the necessary job functions after a thirty (30) day familiarization period. Employees will be recalled to work in order of seniority providing the senior employee possesses the required qualifications and demonstrated ability to perform the necessary job functions within a thirty (30) day familiarization period.

11.08 Notice of Layoff

The Employer shall notify an employee who is to be laid off at least fourteen (14) calendar days prior to the effective date of the layoff or provide payment for their scheduled days of work during the fourteen (14) day notice period.

11.09 Notice (Change of Employment Status Full-time to Part-time)

The Employer agrees to give fourteen (14) calendar days' notice prior to permanently changing an employee's status from full-time to part-time.

11.10 Utilization of Part-time

The Employer shall not utilize part-time employees to displace full-time employees or to prevent the hiring of full-time positions.

11.11 Available Hours of Work

- (a) Full-time and part-time employees will be hired for permanent shifts.
- (b) Part-time and casual employees will notify the Employer in writing of any restrictions to their availability.
- (c) Employees within the same job classification shall be offered available shifts caused by absences or short-shifting by seniority within their classification first at their work location.
- (d) Employees from other work locations shall be offered available shifts caused by absences or short-shifting by seniority if no employee from the work location is available to work the required shift, providing they are capable of performing the work (have the necessary training and minimum qualifications).
- (e) Part-time employees shall be scheduled available hours over casual employees providing it does not result in any overtime payment.

- (f) Generally, increases in available shifts in any residence will be offered by seniority within each residence. The exception to this is the temporary or permanent closing of a residence or if the relocation of a resident to another existing residence decreases shifts available in one residence and increases them in the other, the affected employees in the residence with the decreased shifts will be offered the newly available shifts at the other location before those shifts are offered to any junior employees in that location. In the case of temporary closure or partial closure of a residence, affected employees may, at their discretion, choose to take vacation, use their banked time (overtime or general holidays), or take the time off without pay.

11.12 Laid Off Employees Preference

No new employee may be hired until those qualified employees on lay off who have previously demonstrated their ability to satisfactorily perform the necessary and required work of the Employer have been given the opportunity of recall.

11.13 Change Work Locations

An employee shall not be required to change work locations on a permanent basis except in the event of the closure of the residence, in the event of a reduction in staff, in the event of a serious conflict with a client/resident or in the event of conflict between staff members which may cause anxiety or behaviour problems for the client/resident.

Whenever a change in location is being contemplated for any of the above noted reasons, a meeting shall take place with the Union representative and the employee or employees affected for full disclosure and discussion of the issues, in an attempt to resolve and rectify the issue. Following such meeting, if the Employer elects to proceed with a change in work location for an employee or employees, the Union Representative will be advised in writing.

ARTICLE 12 JOB POSTINGS

12.01 Posting of Vacant Positions

The Employer shall post notices of vacant positions including a description of the duties of the job posted within the bargaining unit on the bulletin board in work locations for a period of seven (7) calendar days. Any employees on vacation or leave shall be notified via email upon individual request.

The position will be awarded within five (5) working days after the posting has been removed and the name of the successful applicant will be posted. The successful applicant will start in their position within four (4) weeks from the date the position was awarded. The notice shall identify the typical duties required, the qualifications and abilities necessary, the classification, wage rate, regular scheduled days of work, normal starting and quitting times and application forms which clearly state the closing date for submitting applications to the Employer. The union representative will be sent copies of each posting on the day it is posted and the results of each posting on the day it is awarded.

12.02 Selection Process for Vacant Position

Seniority shall be the governing factor in making a selection for a vacant position, providing the employee possesses the required qualifications and has the demonstrated ability to perform the work required within a familiarization period of twenty (20) shifts consistent with Article 12.03, Return to Former Position, herein.

In the event of no employees possessing the required qualifications, the Employer agrees to make their selection on the basis of the most senior employee who has the demonstrated ability to perform the work required within a familiarization period as described herein.

12.03 Return to Former Position

If within twenty (20) shifts worked from the date the employee commenced work in their new position, they prove to be unsatisfactory or if they request to return to their former position, the employee shall be returned to their former position and their former rate of pay without loss of seniority. Any other employee affected may also be returned to their former position and former rate of pay without loss of seniority and with as much notice as operationally feasible. If requested by either party, the Union and the Employer may mutually agree to extend the familiarization period by five (5) days.

12.04 Temporary positions of one (1) month or more which are the result of an employee being on an approved leave of absence, sick or disabled shall be posted in accordance with Article 12.01, Posting of Vacant Positions, above and identified as temporary in nature. When the temporary position is over the employee shall return to their former position. Any subsequent temporary vacancy that results in this type of posting need not be posted by the Employer. If subsequent temporary vacancies are not posted they will be filled in accordance with Article 11.11, Available Hours of Work.

12.05 In the event the Employer wishes to make changes to the qualifications required for any classification in the bargaining unit, or the Employer adds a new classification and with it new qualifications, the Employer agrees to advise the Union. Should the Union have any concerns with respect to the reasonableness of the qualifications for any classification, the Union shall, within thirty (30) days of receipt of the information from the Employer, provide such concerns in writing to the Employer.

The parties shall meet to attempt to resolve the areas of concern. Should the parties fail to resolve the concerns, the Union reserves the right to refer the matter to a single arbitrator as outlined in this Agreement on the basis of the "reasonableness" of the required qualifications in dispute.

ARTICLE 13 TRAINING

13.01 The Employer shall assist, when feasible, in the professional development of employees. Employees agree to participate in workshops provided by the Employer.

13.02 Training

Where the Employer compels an employee to attend a conference, workshop or seminar, the employee shall suffer no loss of regular pay for their attendance, and if attending on their day off, they shall be paid for all time spent in the actual conference, seminar, or workshop, plus travel time to get to and from the seminar, workshop or conference. Such time shall be paid at straight time rates. In addition, the Employer agrees to pay for authorized transportation and accommodation, and reasonable meal expenses with receipts. Reasonable meal expenses will be paid up to twenty dollars ($20.00).

13.03 Minimum Training/Orientation

Each new employee will receive a minimum training/ familiarization as follows:

- a minimum of twenty-five (25) hours (including the basic orientation of up to three (3) hours) at each residence, including the Day Program, at which the employee works or may be required to work.

Part-time employees who have expressed their desire, in writing, to occasionally work at other locations will receive training/familiarization at those locations as required by the Employer.

Full-time employees will be given a reasonable training period when going into a different location.

During training an employee will not be solely responsible for any clients, and shall be on duty primarily for training purposes.

Orientation will be conducted according to the Community Living Interlake Policy, and the checklist will be completed for each employee. Where matters of concern arise, they may become agenda topics for the Joint Advisory Committee.

ARTICLE 14 HOURS OF WORK

14.01 The regular hours of work shall not exceed an average of twelve (12) hours per shift or eighty (80) hours in a two (2) week period.

14.02 It is understood that the regular bi-weekly hours of work do not apply where an employee acts as a companion to a resident/client who goes on vacation outside of the Employer's premises. The employee shall be compensated for sixteen (16) hours regular pay for each full day of the resident's vacation. The overtime provisions of this Agreement shall not apply.

14.03 Reporting Pay/Call-In Pay

No employee shall be scheduled or called in to work a shift for less than three (3) consecutive hours unless the employee voluntarily agrees to leave work earlier than the three (3) hours.

14.04 Any employee called in to deal with an emergency will be paid for time worked but in no event less than three (3) hours pay at their appropriate hourly rate of pay and shall be able to leave when the emergency is over. If the time called in for such emergency results in the employee working more than their regular shift overtime shall apply as per Article 19.03, Overtime When Paid.

14.05 Adverse Weather Policy

- (a) All Day Program employees scheduled to work will be expected to come to work. Day Program staff may be asked to work at another location to ensure coverage of residential individuals who cannot be left alone.

All Residential Program employees scheduled to work will be expected to come to work unless the employee is physically unable to attend work due to adverse weather conditions.

PROCESS FOR ADDRESSING CONCERNS OF MANAGERS OR RESIDENTIAL COORDINATORS WORKING WITH SUPPORT WORKERS IN RESIDENCES

The parties agree that a harmonious, efficient workplace is of benefit to management, the members and the residents. As a result, the parties have agreed to a process to ensure that any concerns are promptly and effectively dealt with, as follows:

- 1) In any residence where members are experiencing concerns they are to contact the Union Representative who shall arrange a meeting with themselves, the Executive Director, the members employed at that residence and the Residential Co-ordinator.
- 2) The concerns will be raised at the meeting. Facts will be provided about dates and times that contributed to the concerns. Options that would resolve the matter may be brought forward by any participant in the process and will be discussed thoroughly.
- 3) Attempts will be made to come to consensus on a resolution that will satisfy the parties.
- 4) If consensus is achieved and the resolution is found to be unworkable or ineffective, the parties may reconvene to seek another more effective resolution.
- 5) If no consensus is achieved either party may refer the matter along with the preferred option to Arbitration under Article 26 of the Collective Agreement.

Nothing in this Appendix “C” shall prevent the parties from mutually agreeing to the assistance of a Conciliation Officer prior to an Arbitration Hearing.

RE: Something Beautiful Café and Store

After careful review, discussion and consideration the parties have determined that the positions staffed within the Something Beautiful Café and Store differ greatly from the traditional positions of client care covered by the current Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA).

The parties agree that the Something Beautiful Café and Store will be staffed by employees outside of the current bargaining unit in keeping with the long standing past practice.

The parties understand that the opportunities provided to clients in the Café and Store are there to develop employment skills which will potentially lead to future employment. On occasion a client may be given an opportunity to work independently from their bargaining unit support.

It is further understood that should a client work in the Café or Store it will be for the purpose of developing employment skills. While that client is working in the Café or Store their support provided by bargaining unit employees will continue during the development in each location.

With the exception of emergencies the parties agree that all client care will continue to be provided by bargaining unit employees.

This letter will form part of the CBA and is subject to the grievance and arbitration sections of the agreement should the parties be unable to resolve an issue.

In effort to avoid confusion between the in scope and out of scope employees. The Employer agrees to update the Union in January and July of each year with a list of names and positions of employees in the Café and Store. The employer further agrees to notify the union of any newly created positons prior to implementation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, THE PARTIES HERETO HAVE EXECUTED THIS AGREEMENT.

SIGNED THIS DAY OF , 2024.
