President's Message

Dear Member,

A union collective agreement is like a Charter of Rights. It explains, protects and guarantees your rights on the job. It stipulates the wages you must be paid, the benefits you must receive. It puts down on paper your right to dignity and respect at work.

It is important that you know your rights, the wages and benefits you are entitled to receive. Please take the time to read through this agreement. If you have any questions about it, talk to a shop steward in your workplace or phone your full-time union representative. They are also the people to talk to if you feel the rights and benefits outlined in this document are not being provided to you.

Sincerely,

Jeff Traeger,
President UFCW Local 832

1.02 In this Agreement when the plural is used it shall also mean the singular, wherever applicable.

1.03 In this Agreement when the word "spouse" is used it may mean a person of the same or opposite sex, dependant on provincial legislative requirements.

1.04 A full-time employee is one who works an average of forty (40) hours per week for sixteen (16) consecutive weeks.

1.05 A part-time employee is one who works less than an average of forty (40) hours per week.

1.06 A Temporary Relief Supervisor is an employee who, after having accepted his appointment, has the responsibility of one or more full-time and/or part-time employees under his coordination during a supervisor's absence. When acting, the temporary relief supervisor is responsible for monitoring distribution and delegating the shift's workloads. He benefits of a premium on all hours worked as a Temporary Relief Supervisor for the duration of his assignment.

A temporary relief supervisor may not at any time impose disciplinary measures or review performance management on any of the employees he coordinates.

The employer commits to posting on November 15 every year, the Temporary Relief Supervisor position internally for a minimum period of ten (10) working days, starting on the day it is posted. The choice of any current or future incumbent of this position will be by a selection process including both the employer and a union representative.

The position will be given to the employee who has the highest level of abilities and qualifications for the job. At the same level of abilities and competencies, seniority will be used to confirm the selected employee. The position will be awarded no later than December 15 for the following year.

It is understood that should the Temporary Relief Supervisor position become vacant, the employer will re-post the vacant position within thirty (30) days of the vacancy and follow the same selection process as listed above.

It is understood that the Temporary Relief Supervisor does not have any preferential status in regard to seniority as defined in article 15. The Temporary Relief Supervisor will stay on their posted shift when they are not acting as a Temporary Relief Supervisor.

1.07 FLOATER POSITION

An employee holding the title of "Floater position" will be considered a part-time employee. The person in this classification will not receive more hours than any available full-time employee that has not received their forty (40) hours in a regular work week.

The Floater Position will be considered a Part-time position and the person in this classification will not receive more hours than any available full-time employee that has not received their forty (40) hours in a regular work week except in a compressed work week.

ARTICLE 2 GENERAL PURPOSE

2.01 The purpose of this Agreement is to maintain a harmonious relationship between the Company and its employees; to define more clearly hours of work, wages, and conditions of employment; to provide an amicable method of settling differences or grievances which may from time to time arise; to promote mutual interests of the Company and its employees' and to provide for the operation of the Company's centre at Carberry, Manitoba under methods which will serve the interests of McCain Foods (Canada) as well as those of the Company and its employees, as defined in Article 3.01 below.

- (d) to conserve and protect machinery, equipment and property;
- (e) to be responsible in the occupancy and use of the property of McCain Foods (Canada) that is required to be occupied and used by the Company and its employees.

2.03 It is recognized by this Agreement to be the responsibility of the Company and its employees to cooperate fully, individually and collectively, for the promotion of the aforesaid conditions.

ARTICLE 3 RECOGNITION

3.01 The Union shall be the sole and exclusive bargaining agency for all employees of the Company at Carberry, Manitoba, excluding office staff, one (1) supervisor per shift, managers, those above the rank of manager, and those excluded by the Act.

ARTICLE 4 MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

4.01 The Management of the plant and the direction of the working force, including the right to hire, suspend, transfer, discharge employees for violation of reasonable Company rules or other just causes, and to lay off employees because of lack of work or for other legitimate reasons is vested exclusively in the Company, provided, however, that the Company shall not discriminate against any employees or applicant for employment because of membership in or lawful activity on behalf of the Union. This provision shall not be construed to limit management in any way in the exercise of their regular and customary functions and this Article shall be applied in accordance with the other terms and conditions as provided by this Agreement.

4.02 In administering this Agreement, the Company shall act reasonably, fairly, in good faith and in a manner consistent with the Agreement as a whole.

ARTICLE 5 UNION SECURITY

5.01 It shall be a condition of employment for all employees to become members of the Union within thirty (30) days from date of hiring.

5.02 The Company agrees to deduct from the wages of each employee, such Union dues, initiation fees and assessments as are authorized by the Union. The Company further agrees to deduct the Union dues automatically from the wages of new or rehired employees' first pay. Monies deducted during any month shall be forwarded by the Company to the Secretary-Treasurer of the Union within seven (7) calendar days following the end of the month and shall be accompanied by a monthly written statement, in duplicate, of the names and social insurance numbers of the employees for whom deductions were made and the amount of each deduction. The Company shall also provide the Union, when remitting the monthly cheque, with the names of employees and name changes of employees.

Each year the Company shall calculate the amount of Union dues deducted from the employee's pay and shall indicate same on the T-4 slip of each employee by no later than February 28th.

5.03 The Union shall advise the Company, in writing, of the amount of Union dues initiation fees and assessments to be deducted from the wages of employees and shall notify the Company in writing of any change in such amounts to be deducted at least thirty (30) calendar days in advance of the end of the pay period in which the deductions are to be made.

However, all employees will be covered by the Collective Agreement beginning the first day of work, except as specifically indicated elsewhere in this Agreement.

ARTICLE 6 CONTRACTING OUT AND WORK OF SUPERVISORS

6.01 The Company will not contract out bargaining unit work customarily done by employees.

6.02 Employees excluded from the bargaining unit, are not to be assigned regular jobs within the bargaining unit except in cases of emergency, inventory or for training purposes.

One (1) working supervisor per shift may perform bargaining unit work of three (3) hours or less. For work expected to be greater than three (3) hours in a shift the supervisor may only perform the work if all current and laid off employees have refused to do the work. The three (3) hours will not include relieving scheduled employees for breaks or meal periods. The Company commits to make all reasonable attempts to ensure there are always two (2) bargaining unit members at work while the production lines are operating. When the Company is only operating a spec line, the most senior employee will have the option to stay on the night shift or go to the day shift and there will always be a minimum of one (1) employee working on the spec shift.

ARTICLE 7 HOURS OF WORK AND OVERTIME

7.01 An average of forty (40) hours shall constitute a normal work week for employees who are not on layoff. The work week shall not be considered as a guarantee on the part of the Company, but is the amount the Company will endeavour to provide to employees.

Time and one-half (1½) of an employee's straight time hourly rate of pay shall be paid for all hours worked over eight (8) hours daily or forty (40) hours weekly, whichever is the greater, but not both. The work week will be Sunday through Saturday.

No employee will be compelled to work on Christmas Day and New Year's Day.

7.02 Any employee who works seven (7) consecutive calendar days period shall be paid two times (2x) the employee's regular rate of pay for all hours worked on the seventh (7th) consecutive day and any consecutive days following.

7.03 Any employee reporting for work at the direction of the Company shall be offered a minimum of four (4) hours of work. If the work is not provided, then the employee will be paid four (4) hours straight time.

Overtime of less than four (4) hours before or after a shift shall not be considered as a consecutive day, however, employees called-in as per Article 7.07 shall have that shift counted as a consecutive day.

7.04 Employee work schedules shall be posted designating an employee's scheduled time off work. Any employee who is assigned to work on a scheduled day off shall receive one and one-half (1½) times their straight time hourly rate for the hours worked, provided that the employee fully completes their scheduled hours that same week. Absence due to disability, confirmed by an acceptable medical certificate shall be considered as time worked. An employee shall be allowed to return to work for the balance of their weekly schedule following the provision of an acceptable medical certificate. The Company will endeavor to maintain the posted schedule, and an employee shall only be reassigned or rescheduled due to an unforeseen circumstance or emergency. Nothing in this paragraph shall be applied to avoid the payment of overtime or premium pays as outlined anywhere else in this Agreement. Wherever reasonably possible, changes shall not be made to the posted schedule later than Thursday noon for the following week.

Notwithstanding the paragraph above, no employee who has been called in for an emergency to work outside of their regularly scheduled hours will be compelled to work beyond twelve (12) hours (or less if approved by the Supervisor) in the day. Such employee, will however, be paid overtime for all time worked outside their regularly scheduled hours.

7.05 There shall be no pyramiding of overtime and premium pay for such days as holidays, a seventh (7th) consecutive day worked in any one work week, or for work on scheduled days off. In the event that either overtime or the premium pay provisions could be applied to the same hours worked, only the greater shall apply. This clause is not intended to exclude premium payment for hours of work in accordance with Articles 7 and 8 but rather, to ensure no compounding of those premiums during overtime hours.

7.06 Any employees who are recalled to work after completing their shift for the day and having left the plant shall be paid time and one-half (1½) for the actual hours worked or four (4) hours at straight time pay, whichever is the greater.

7.07 Employees may make friendly agreements to exchange shifts one with the other subject to approval from supervisors in charge of the shifts. The request must be presented in writing. In no instance will an employee be permitted to work more than sixteen (16) consecutive hours under this agreement nor will such arrangement result in the payment of overtime.

Whenever there is a permanent vacancy or a major schedule change, employees will have the opportunity to bid on their choice of available shift by seniority.

- 7.08 (a) Employees are expected to work a reasonable amount of overtime.
- (b) In situations where overtime is required in the form of an extension of the regular shift, first opportunity to work the overtime will be provided to employees who normally perform the work where the overtime is required and provided further that the employee is actually at work. Thereafter, the overtime will be offered in descending order of seniority to qualified employees who are present when the overtime is required.

- (c) When overtime is scheduled in the form of an additional shift for employees, the same procedure as defined in Section (b) above shall apply.
- (d) When a sufficient number of volunteers cannot be found to perform the work, such overtime shall become mandatory for the junior employee qualified to perform the work.
- (e) Employees are not permitted to work seven (7) consecutive days within a work week when other qualified employees are available and qualified to perform the work and/or without the exclusive permission of the Company.

Notwithstanding Article 6.02, non-bargaining unit employees will not be allowed to do any work which is normally performed by members of the bargaining unit.

7.09 Overtime Banking

In addition to the above, the following conditions and procedures shall govern the "banking" of overtime.

1. That the employee advises their supervisor that they wish to "bank" their overtime at the time of overtime assignment and that such election is irrevocable. The time eligible for banking shall be the actual work hours in excess of those representing a "full" normal work week (40 hours except in the case of compressed work week). Authorized leaves including those for illness or injury shall be regarded as hours actually worked for this purpose. The employee must bank all (both straight and premium payment portions) overtime earned on a particular shift with the additional condition that overtime on a given shift must exceed one (1) hour to be eligible for banking.
2. "Banked" overtime may be scheduled as time off in accordance with the following provisions:
 - (a) That one (1) week notice be given in advance of taking time off in lieu of overtime payment and that the scheduling of time off be approved by the Company. The Company may at its discretion waive the one (1) week notice requirement if no replacement is required for the employee.
 - (b) That time off in lieu of overtime may only be taken in full work week periods unless replacement is not required in the opinion of the employee's supervisor or other Company management.

- (c) That the scheduling of time off in lieu will not give rise to overtime expense for replacement.
 - (d) Other employees' scheduled vacation time will be given priority over banked overtime.
- 3. That time off in lieu of overtime is not considered work time for purposes of seniority retention, benefit extension, and other such provisions of the Collective Agreement.
 - 4. Unused "banked" overtime will be paid to the employee at the end of the calendar year.
 - 5. Pay for "banked" overtime will be at the rate in effect-at the time the overtime is being paid.
 - 6. Employees will have the ability to carry a maximum of eighty (80) hours in their overtime bank. An employee can request to transfer all banked hours to the following calendar year. The carry-over of banked time does not affect the current maximum of eighty (80) hours.

7.10 The Company shall post a sheet for employees who wish to work overtime to sign. Employees may sign or remove their name at anytime.

7.11 Should the Company alter or change the work schedule for a period of more than two (2) weeks employees will be consulted on a voluntarily basis based on the Company's business needs. If no employees have volunteered seniority will prevail.

7.12 Once an approved shift schedule has been put in place it will not take effect for four (4) weeks allowing for employees to make necessary transition needs, as per Article 7.11 (seniority).

7.13 CANCELED SHIFTS and SHUT DOWNS

When the Company cancels shifts or has a shutdown the available hours will be offered by seniority. No senior employee will lose hours of work unless they so wish.

ARTICLE 8 MEAL AND REST PERIODS

8.01 All employees working eight (8) hour shifts, shall have two (2) fifteen (15) minute rest periods and will receive a twenty (20) minute meal period with pay. All employees working twelve (12) hour shifts, will receive three (3) fifteen (15) minute rest periods and two (2) twenty (20) minute meal periods with pay.

8.02 Subject only to the needs of the business, rest periods shall be uninterrupted. Should an employee's rest period be interrupted by the management, the employee will be allowed to start their rest period again after the interruption.

ARTICLE 9 NIGHT PREMIUM

9.01 A night premium equal to three (3%) percent of the Warehouse rate, rounded to the nearest cent, shall be paid for each hour actually worked between 1600 hours and 2400 hours.

 A night premium equal to four (4%) percent of the Warehouse rate, rounded to the nearest cent, shall be paid for each hour actually worked between 0001 hours and 0800 hours.

9.02 Night Premiums shall be computed and applied to employees working on a compressed workweek in accordance with the following:

- (a) The amount shall be determined by multiplying eight (8x) times the amount of the second shift premium plus eight (8x) times the amount of the third shift premium, the sum of which shall be divided by twelve (12).
- (b) The amount as determined by (a) above shall only be applied to the hours an employee works between 8:00 p.m. and 8:00 a.m.

9.03 Employees are to be paid the night premium if they are scheduled to start work at any hours other than between 6:00 a.m. and 9:00 a.m.

9.04 Employees who are scheduled to start work between 6:00 a.m. and 9:00 a.m. do not receive the night premium even though their hours of work extend into the period where night premium is applicable. Employees who are scheduled to start work between 6:00 a.m. and 9:00 a.m. and continue to work a double shift, will receive the night premium starting at 4:00 p.m.

No employees vacation request made prior to April 30th shall be denied as a result of a request for a Floater Holiday. If a Floater Holiday request must be denied and cannot be rescheduled due to the exigencies of the business the Company will pay out the Floater Holiday at one and one-half (1½) times the employees' regular rate of pay.

11.03 Employees shall be paid eight (8) or twelve (12) hours at their straight time rate dependent upon their shift schedule at the time of the statutory holiday on each of the above holidays provided they meet the following requirements:

- (a) They work their scheduled work day prior to and report for work on the holiday, if scheduled, and their scheduled day immediately following the holiday or present a medical certificate acceptable to the Company showing their inability to work on such days.
- (b) They must be on the payroll and available for work or on an authorized leave of absence (not to include unpaid leaves, with the exception of union leave) with the clear understanding that the employee on such authorized leave must satisfy the qualifier immediately before or after the holiday as mentioned in (a) above.

Employees with 30 years of service shall receive two (2) days extra vacation in their 30th, 35th and 40th year. On the years in between they shall receive 240 hours of vacation at 12%.

12.02 Each day of vacation will be paid on the basis of the employee's shift value i.e. eight (8) or twelve (12) hours, at the employees' straight time hourly rate (the base rate paid for the shift prior to the vacation commencing) provided the individual is continuously employed. Employees with partial day entitlement remaining may elect to take a full day off, however the difference will be without pay.

In determining continuous service for vacation purposes it will include hours worked, statutory holidays and absences covered by Workers Compensation, disability benefits under the Company's sick pay, weekly indemnity plan, maternity and parental leave and leave for union business.

12.06 The Manager or their designate is responsible for scheduling vacation for their shift and will attempt to schedule vacation at the time the employee requests. No requests for vacation will be unreasonably denied. Vacations will be scheduled as follows:

- a) For the purpose of allocating vacation entitlement, the Manager or their designate will post a tentative vacation schedule no later than November 30th of the previous year (the vacation year shall run from August 1st to July 31st). Employees may then fill in their vacation request, which will be granted by the employee's seniority provided requests are submitted by April 30.
- b) Requests submitted after April 30th will be allocated on a first come first served basis. The Manager will respond in writing to all written requests for vacation leave submitted after April 30th, within ten (10) working days of the request being made. Rescheduling of such vacation within one (1) month of its scheduled date will require consent of the Manager or their designate and the employee(s) affected.
- c) In all cases, the Manager or their designate will endeavour to grant vacation at the time an employee chooses, however, should the needs of the business be such that taking vacation time off at the scheduled time is not possible, the employee will be given as much advance notice as possible of such changes.
- d) The Company agrees to allow two (2) employees to be off on vacation at the same time up to a maximum of one hundred eight (108) hours in one week.

12.07 If a full-time employee is confined to the hospital or their home following a stay in the hospital, due to a serious illness or injury while on vacation, and presents a doctor's certificate to confirm the situation, the employee may utilize any sick leave credits they may have accumulated and/or weekly indemnity benefits. Such period of confinement interrupting vacation, at the employee's request, will be rescheduled following the employee's return to work.

12.08 If the employee leaves during the year, the vacation entitlement is prorated according to the employee's years of service to determine the vacation pay. It is understood and agreed between the parties that in the case of terminations and where an overpayment of vacation pay has occurred, the Company shall deduct such overpayment from the terminating employee's last pay cheque.

1. COMPLAINT PROCEDURES

Complaints should be made within a reasonable time, usually within one year from the date of the most recent alleged incident.

Informal Complaint:

a. A complainant who believes that he or she has been subjected to harassment or discrimination should take direct action, if possible, to make the offender aware of unease and/or disapproval. The complainant may choose to consult with a Recipient of Complaints, for the purpose of receiving advice, counseling or assistance, with a view to resolving the situation.

If the complainant is unable to take direct action, or if the offensive behaviour persists in spite of it being brought to the respondent's attention, the complainant may request that a Recipient of Complaints intervene to try to resolve the situation. The Recipient of Complaints may meet with the complainant, the respondent, and/or any other relevant party with a view to resolving the matter. The Recipient of Complaints should keep a written record of the date, time and nature of any incident that is brought to his or her attention, along with the names of any witnesses and the steps taken to deal with the situation. .

If it is determined that the allegation(s) does not fall under the definitions set out in the policy then the complainant shall be advised accordingly and no further action shall be taken under this policy.

If it is determined that the allegation(s) falls within the definitions set out in this policy, an investigation shall be launched.

c. The investigation should be concluded as expeditiously as possible.

d. If, at any time during the course of the investigation, the Independent Officer deems it appropriate for the complainant and respondent to seek resolution through mediation, and where they both consent to do so, the Independent Officer may interrupt the investigation for such period(s) of time as he or she considers reasonable to facilitate such a resolution. Any such resolution may provide for withdrawal of the complaint or a portion thereof.

- vi. Provide a copy of the written report to Human Resources, who may provide a confidential copy to another party on a “need to know” basis only.
- f. If it is determined that the policy has been breached then the Independent Officer, in consultation with Human Resources and the respondent’s supervisor shall collectively agree upon an appropriate disposition of the matter. The disposition along with a copy of the Independent Officer’s report will be provided to the complainant, the respondent and the respondent’s supervisor. Human Resources will ensure the disposition is fulfilled and file a copy of the disposition in the respondent’s employee file. All other information pertaining to the investigation shall be retained in a secure file held by Human Resources.
- g. No further action will be taken and no record of the complaint will be placed on the respondent’s employee file.
- h. No record of the complaint shall be kept in the complainant’s employee file unless it was determined that the complaint was frivolous or vexatious. The Company will take disciplinary action against a complainant in cases where frivolous or vexatious complaints are submitted.

good-faith execution of those duties.

4. Interference and Retaliation

Interference with the conduct of an investigation or retaliation against a complainant or witness, whether the complaint was substantiated or unsubstantiated, may itself result in disciplinary action.

Where the complainant is an employee under the supervision of the respondent, the Recipient of Complaints, may, where it is feasible to do so and at the complainant's request, reassign either the complainant or the respondent to different duties, pending the resolution of the complaint.

Responsibilities

To the best of their ability, persons who become privy to complaints under this policy shall treat the information in strict confidence and shall not discuss it with anyone who is not an integral part of the resolution process.

Intentional breaches of confidentiality by any person may be subject to disciplinary action.

Disciplinary Action
