

Brandon and District Labour Council Scholarship

To honour Colleen Seymour longtime labour activist and leader, the Brandon and District Labour Council (BDLC), has established a $500 scholarship to be awarded to a member of an affiliate union, or a member of their immediate family, taking education that will either lead to employment in a unionized job or related to organizing in the labour movement. The BDLC Scholarship will be awarded to one recipient per year by June 30. A committee of the BDLC will be established to review applications and make recommendations.

To be considered for the BDLC Scholarship, please fill out this form and return it by June 3rd to bdlcscholarship@gmail.com or mail to Brandon and District Labour Council 727C 10th St, Brandon MB R7A 4G7. Please complete your answers on a separate paper if there is not enough room provided.

Applicant information

Name:

Address:

Name of Unionized family member (if applicable):

Phone:

Email:

Union and Local:

What education are you taking?

What union or organization could you be a part of after finishing your program?

Why is being a part of a union to you important in 2022 and beyond?

How as being part of a union or being in a union family benefited you?